“ *The memory of Doris riding down to the field on her 4 wheeler where we were bailing hay and her yelling at Lee her son that I was to stop and she needed me at the house, but not really, haha!! Me and her went to the the pond to catch Blue Gil for dinner. As me and her were relaxing next the pond, my cousins Scott, Andy and also Lee were working in the hot sweaty sun. The part that stinks is we catch a 5 gallon bucket of fish in a matter of 30 minutes which ment I had to go back to work, but Doris said “ no you don’t, you and Frank have to cut those fish up for dinner!!” But before we started cutting she would tell me to come in the home and get a cookie that was half the size of a plate and a glass of fresh milk. Poor Scott, Andy and Lee, lol!
We will all miss the fun times on the farm and you Doris!*
