

Earl (Bob) Byron Betker, Jr.

September 18, 1942 - September 15, 2010

Earl (Bob) Byron Betker, Jr., 67, of Homeworth, Ohio passed away on Wednesday, September 15, 2010 at Alliance City Hospital. He was born on September 18, 1942 in Carpenterstown, Pennsylvania to the late Earl Byron Betker Sr. and Mary Louise (Bussie Betker) Masters. He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Norma Jean Lamb. He is survived by two sisters and a step brother; Faye Miller of Edwardsville, Ill, Nina (Terry) Bradway of Alliance, Oh and Kelvin Masters of Alliance, Oh. Earl had three children; Travis Betker of New Castle, Pa, Justine (Ge-ge) Shuler of Struthers, Oh and Donald Betker of Homeworth, Oh. Earl was very proud of his grandchildren and especially his great-grandchildren. He was the former owner of Earl's A1 Radiator and was well liked by many of his customers. He was also a circle track race driver and enjoyed older truck restorations and custom hot rods. Friends wishing to celebrate his life and passing and his birthday with the family may gather on Saturday, September 18, 2010 from 2 to 4 PM at the Limaville Community Center on Wall St. in Limaville, Oh.

Tribute Wall

“ Earl (Bob) Byron Betker, Jr.

---

October 04, 2023 at 05:05 PM

“ Oh Grandpa how i will miss you very much. guess what grandpa i saw your truck and i thought of a handsom stud that use to drive it and it brought a smile and tears to my face. well i will come see you very soon. i love you so much

love always

---

Vanessa Lynne. - November 15, 2010 at 12:17 PM

“ Mr. Betker was a wonderful man and will be greatly missed. He was always full of smiles when he came in to my pharmacy. Patients like Mr. Betker make me remember why I became a pharmacist. He holds a special place in my heart and will always be my "pharmacy boyfriend" as my staff and I called him. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

---

Jonessa Burkholder - September 18, 2010 at 10:57 AM