“ What do I say Jodi was a free spirit with a lot of curve balls thrown her way but Jodi lived everyday to the fullest and never let anything in her life get into the way. Jodi to me was a ray of sunshine her laugh her smile. everything she did she did from the heart. Jodi was diebetic and when I ran into her at doctors office she had just had thyroid cancer surgery and a pump to control the diebets she showed it to me and she still had a smile. I remember asking her how do you do it she said Lisa I live in the moment no matter what is in store for me I'm going to keep going. When I got the txt about jodi in class which I see she went to stark state also I dropped the phone and told my instructor I had to leave I sat on my scooter for ten minutes crying. Then I remembered what she said to me at the doctors office and I smiled and said Jodi you are loved by many and this is ur new journey. To jodi's family she was a brite light of love and laughter and she will be greatly missed but remember she always took life by the horns and never let anything stand in her way. Love you and miss you sweet angel we will not forget you ever.

“ Aunt Jodi I love you so much. You always made me laugh and when I was the only one home and scared, you would make the drive to pick me up so that I could be with you. You were a GREAT Aunt and friend. I remember all the fun times in North Carolina and with Roxanne. All you wanted was to spend time with your nieces and nephew. The fact that you were allowing Me, Kels and Roxanne to decorate a room in your home just for us, shows how much you cared and wanted to be with us. I know that you are no longer hurting and that is what I am trying to hold on to but it still hurts. I love you and I will never forget you, your smile or all that you did for me, mom and dad. I love you !!!
