“ *Dear Aunt Ida,
Leslie and I are so sorry for your loss. Uncle Fred and I shared a love of restored cars and Gibson guitars. He was a great builder, craftsman and along with his brother put a roof on our house, remodeled our kitchen, and they chewed tobacco and spit all the time! I was impressed! Feel good today that his sense of humor lives on in all of us. We will miss him, but he will always be in our hearts.....*

“ *Dear Aunt Ida,
Uncle Fred and I shared a bond of visual artists: What can I do with this? I see shape, color and texture and "I know what this will become." I always admired his creativity, craftsmanship and vision. It was always fun to hear and see his next idea and creation. I also admired his dedication and love to you and his family. You were a couple to be admired, always there in sickness and health, with humor, dedication and love. I will miss him. Pat always enjoyed his outlook on life and respected his achievements.
love, Carol and Pat*

“ Dear Aunt Ida,

One fond memory I had of Uncle Fred occurred at Fairhope. I was about 10 and asked him if I could smoke his cigar. He quietly chuckled as was his usual response to us nosy kids. He handed me the lit cigar, and gleefully watched me. Before long I tried to get rid of that nasty taste in my mouth. I stood at the kitchen sink trying to rinse my mouth out as fast as I could. I never smoked again!

Gee, how I miss those happy times so long ago. I will miss Uncle Fred, too. He loved to show us his latest project he built or restored, and tell us about the story behind it. He was a good fellow. I loved him, and you, too. You were always so patient and kind.

May he rest in peace.

Your niece, Donna

Harry sends his sympathy to you and your family.
