“ I'm so sorry to read about the loss of your father. I remember John and Celia as being such good, nice people. I think I saw them a couple of times dancing at the McKinley Eagles in Canton, maybe 15 years ago or so. I remember playing sports in your yard and I remember the model train set that you had in the basement. I'm not sure, but I think Celia may have been our Cub Scout pack leader too. I send sincere condolences for your loss. Gene
