“ Jason, Jeff and Connie, I am so very sorry for your loss. I think of you all often, now more than ever, knowing how hard this will be for you. There are moments that I can recall from many years ago that included two of the people that have also left messages here, that Bill just cracked me up at the way he handled them or his one liners that had everyone laughing. Again I will say, I am so sorry for your loss and you will all be in my thoughts and prayers. Stephanie

Whether he was giving us advice or just telling a funny story he impacted our lives and was always so much fun to be around. I am lucky to have known him. Your family is in my thoughts during this time of hardship.

“ The true measure of man is the legacy he leaves behind. You [and I] will greatly miss Bill's passionate, fun loving spirit who found joy and brought it to you. Mourn if you must, but take comfort in knowing that a piece of his legacy resides within you, that God assured him a rendezvous with his father and brother, that you shall 'ride' again in the afterlife.
